

Canterbury Cathedral Closures August 2017

Please note that, thanks to a major grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund and other generous donors, we are currently embarking on an exciting project to repair and re-lead the Nave roof and carry out restoration work to stone and stained glass on Nave and Western Towers. Inevitably, this means scaffolding and some disturbance. However, the Cathedral and grounds are huge and much of it is unaffected by the work. Seeing the scaffolding going up actually makes one realise how amazing it is that such a huge building was constructed without the modern equipment and army of engineers, architects and consultants we now have.

Saturday 5th August

The Crypt is closed from 12.00 – 14.30 hrs for a wedding.

Friday 11th August

The Crypt is closed from 12.00 – 14.30 hrs for a wedding.

Saturday 12th August

The Crypt is closed from 12.00 – 14.30 hrs for a wedding.

Saturday 26th August

The Crypt is closed until 13.00 hrs for Matins followed by a wedding.

Visiting choir summer season continues throughout the summer
until 31st August (inc).

The Centre Quire will usually close at 16:00 on weekdays and 13:45 at weekends for choir practice.

There will be said evening prayer instead of Choral Evensong on 3rd, 10th, 20th, 30th and 31st August

Canterbury Cathedral Closures September 2017

Please note that, thanks to a major grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund and other generous donors, we are currently embarking on an exciting project to repair and re-lead the Nave roof and carry out restoration work to stone and stained glass on Nave and Western Towers. Inevitably, this means scaffolding and some disturbance. However, the Cathedral and grounds are huge and much of it is unaffected by the work. Seeing the scaffolding going up actually makes one realise how amazing it is that such a huge building was constructed without the modern equipment and army of engineers, architects and consultants we now have.

Saturday 2nd September

The Crypt is closed until 13.30 hrs for Matins followed by a wedding.

Saturday 9th September

The Nave and Quire are closed for visiting from 13.45 until 16.30 hrs for Evensong attended by St John's Ambulance and the Old Choristers Association.

Tuesday 12th and Wednesday 13th September

The Nave, Martyrdom and Chapter House are closed for Canterbury Christ Church University Graduation ceremonies.

Friday 15th September

The Quire is closed until 11.00 hrs for the Junior Kings School Start of Year service.

Saturday 23rd September

The Crypt is closed from 12.15 – 14.30 hrs for a wedding.

Saturday 30th September

The Nave and Quire and Chapter House are closed from 14.00 until 16.30 hrs for the Farewell service for the Archdeacon of Ashford.