

the Marston Vale

~ a community forest

Birdwatchers come to Stewartby Lake... there are nesting swans on stinky brook

Stewartby Lake

Stewartby

Stewartby brickworks

its chimneys and conveyor

Clay pit

Stewartby station

Marston Mortaine

Forest Centre & Millennium Park

Crocodiles (160 million years ago)

the path to Stewartby

the B530

the A421
Follow the Timberland Trail waymarkers across five fields (lovely and muddy)

A young forest growing

Thameslink to Bedford

Kings Wood is a site of special scientific interest

Henry VIII used to hunt here
Take nothing away and leave only your footprints behind

Kings Wood

Marston Vale Railway Line to Bedford

Millbrook Proving Ground vehicle testing centre

Houghton House
A ruin with a view

two path junctions...stay on track!

Lidlington & station

Jackdaw Hill
views across the vale

Highest Point!

an enchanting valley

Ampt Hill
Historic market town

Ampt Hill Park
Beautiful views across the Vale

A fine church

Lovely woods, quiet paths and a pond

Millbrook

Katherine's Cross
War Memorial

A fine church