

A visitor centre bringing Welsh history
to life

Welcome

Come and discover the story of a 15-year-old Welsh girl called Mary Jones.

In 1800, after saving for six years, she walked 26 miles from Llanfihangel-y-Pennant to Bala to buy a book.

What was that book?
And why did her journey inspire a movement that is still thriving today?

Our state-of-the-art visitor centre, in the historic St Beuno's Church, tells the story of Mary Jones and Thomas Charles, and the impact of the world's best-selling book on Wales and the World.
