Beverley & East Riding Golf Club

Founded in 1889, the Westwood course is arguably the oldest in Yorkshire. The 6,017 yard, Par 69 course boasts an enviable mix of parkland, heathland and links - taking advantage of the ups and downs of the rolling fairways and magnificent views of the market town of Beverley and its spectacular Minster. The club is pleased to be the home of the East Riding Union of Golf Clubs.

Hainsworth Park Golf Club

Formed in 1983, Hainsworth Park is set in established grounds with mature trees and interesting water features. This easy walking course has wide fairways but beware the many hazards that can ensnare the wayward shot! Close to, but protected from the coast, the course is well-drained and offers year-round excellent playing conditions, without temporary tees or greens. And trolleys are never banned!

Driffield Golf Club

Driffield Golf Club was founded in 1923 and is in the splendid scenery of the Sunderlandwick estate. The trout stream which runs through it may yield more than a misplaced golf ball. The 6215 yards, Par 70, course is well maintained and open throughout the year. Visitors remark on its quality and suitability for players of all ability.

Hornsea Golf Club

Established in 1898 and set in secluded parkland, the picturesque 18 hole course offers superb greens and excellent facilities. The course is a traditional links design, with the first 7 holes running outward towards the iconic water tower.

A double loop of 5 holes, including the signature hole, 11th, brings the golfer to Hornsea's famous inward stretch, possibly the finest six finishing holes in the county.
